

Friendly Auction

Solicitors/Conveyancers

The below solicitors and conveyancers have been selected as part of our panel as they meet our strict criteria:

1. Being proactive and willing to talk to and see clients in a timely manner
2. Be willing to look at contracts of sale prior to an auction and provide advice without charge, should you decide to not proceed with attempting to purchase the property, or are unsuccessful at auction
3. On a successful purchase, invoice a fair and reasonable rate for the services provided

Please be advised that our agents do not receive financial kickbacks and incentives through referring these professionals to you. These companies have simply provided outstanding service to past clients and have never seen it as too much trouble to get a client prepared to buy the property they wish to go for at auction. We have fantastic feedback from buyers and sellers who have dealt with these firms and we are always open to your feedback as we constantly wish to monitor the service of those we recommend.

Bear in mind that a lot of the advice can be given by phone with maybe one (if any) face to face meeting required. As such the location of each solicitor or conveyancer isn't too critical and we suggest you choose the one that you're most comfortable with.
